

MUSEUM LONDON

BOARD POLICY

COMMUNITY

Preamble

Museum London is committed to stewarding the London community's arts and historical heritage by actively engaging with the community and being responsive to its needs as per Museum London's mission to "inspire and educate our community by preserving and sharing our art and history". The Museum is an accessible and relevant organization drawing support from its community stakeholders in accordance with its Governance, Exhibition and Research Policies amongst others.

Policy

Museum London will strive to:

- Ensure that it performs its role as a steward of the art and artifact collections.
- Ensure that it provides services and programs consistent with its mission to "inspire and educate our community by preserving and sharing our art and history" that meet the needs and interests of the community.
- Encourage all sectors of the community to participate in the Museum's decisions, goals and directions as appropriate.
- Include members of the community in Museum activities.
- Identify and pursue appropriate community partnerships.
- Provide equality of access to information about the Museum's collections, services and programs through adequate promotion.
- Provide access to all members of the community to the Museum's collections, information, services and programs.
- Provide hours of operation that the Museum is open to the public that meet the needs of the community.
- Provide a volunteer program to encourage community participation in its activities.

Last Revised Date: 26 October 2016

MONITORING:

Adherence

The Executive Director will report to the Board on any areas of non-adherence within a timely manner.

Policy Review

Method: Internal Report

Responsibility: Policy Committee

Minimum Frequency: Five Years