

MUSEUM LONDON

BOARD POLICY

PERSONAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Preamble

Museum London is dedicated to providing a positive visitor experience of the art and artifacts on exhibition as well as conserving the exhibited objects and protecting the artists' intellectual property, such as copyright, and the privacy of lenders whose works are displayed in Museum London exhibitions, wherever located.

Policy

- Still and video photography are allowed unless a 'do not photograph' symbol is posted in a gallery or beside artwork and artifacts.
- Still and video photography are permitted solely for personal enjoyment and with the following restriction: no use of camera supports.
- Still and video photography of technical installations and equipment are not permitted.
- For press and other special photography, including educational and research projects, requests should be made in writing to the Executive Director.
- Museum London reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to withhold and/or withdraw permission to photograph on its premises or to reproduce images of objects in its collection and on loan to the Museum.

Date: 28 June 2017

MONITORING:

Adherence

The Executive Director will report to the Board on any areas of non-adherence within a timely manner.

Policy Review

Method: Internal Report

Responsibility: Policy Committee

Minimum Frequency: Annually