Museum London Call for Board of Directors Nominations

Museum London is looking for strategic thinkers and community leaders with a broad range of experience and expertise. To ensure the best possible decision-making environment, priority will be given to expanding the diversity of board members in areas such as ethnicity, race, culture, gender, ability and age. All expressions of interest, including self-identification with an equity-seeking community, will be kept confidential.

Museum London is Southwestern Ontario's leading establishment for the collection and presentation of visual art and material culture. Through public and educational programming, special events and exhibitions, Museum London strives to promote the knowledge and enjoyment of regional art, culture, and history.

New board members must be willing to attend a monthly board meeting, participate in committee work, and be an ambassador for the Museum and its activities.

To apply, please submit the following by March 1, 2022.

- Current résumé
- Short statement outlining why you would be interested in becoming a member of Museum London Board of Directors.

Board positions would commence at the April 2022 Annual General Meeting. Applications will be reviewed as they are received, and all applications will be acknowledged.
